

World Leisure Congress 2008 Express News

Round Table - Tuesday, October 7th

How to Deal with Diversity and Differences?

Cirque du Soleil: a unique experience

Gaétan Morency, Vice President, Citizenship - Cirque du Soleil

In collaboration with its partners, the Cirque du Soleil is involved in nearly 80 communities throughout the world representing some 20 countries on five continents.

Toronto's YMCA: an inclusive society

Scott Haldane, President and General Manager - Greater Toronto's YMCA

At Toronto's YMCA, we dream of uniting people... searching for an inclusive society for all, regardless of origin, events or abilities.

Leisure, Cultural Identity and Development of Solidarity

Other members of the round table:

- In Quebec, culture is a source for identity

Danielle-Claude Chartré, Assistant Deputy Minister for the territorial action of the ministry of Culture, Communications and Status of Women

- What is the definition of free time in the 21st Century?

Chris Rojek, Ph. D., Professor of sociology and culture and author, School of Social Sciences, Brunel University, West London

- Plurality, identity, solidarity, key words for development tourism

Norberto Tonini, President, International Bureau of Social Tourism (IBST)

www.loisirquebec2008.com

- 30 -

Source: Conseil québécois du loisir

Information: Andrée Peltier
Public Relations Andrée Peltier
514.846.0003
514.944.8689
apeltier@ca.inter.net