Québec, Wednesday, October 8th, 2008 - The most important leisure trade show in the world will open its doors to delegates (Wednesday) and to the general public (Thursday) during the World Leisure Congress Québec 2008.

Reuniting over 200 exhibitors from all sectors of activity such as equipment, games, tourism, sports, leisure, safety and animation, this trade show will be instrumental in establishing preferential contacts between workers in the field of leisure and suppliers of products and services in leisure.
